January Meeting

The meeting was held on January 21, 2005 at J.B. Parker's shop. There were 18 members in attendance and one potential new member.

Club Business

- The Club will apply for tax exempt status. Jan Rehler will volunteer his services and make the required application. This will reduce the tax forms to be filed.
- Larry Wilk is at a local hospital recovering from surgery. Members wanting more information on Larry's condition should contact Roland Blair for an update. We wish Larry a speedy recovery.
- A vote was taken on the Rockport Art Festival on July 4th. The Club will not attend this year.

- A vote was past for the Club to participate in the Shriner Fiddle Festival on March 24 -26. We have signed up for two 10' x 10' sales areas. Details will be formalized during the February meeting.
 - J. B. Parker gave a very informative demo on turning rolling pins. A handout was provided. Special thanks to J.B. and Carolyn for hosting the meeting.
 - Treasurer Butch Barnett stated that the Club has a $1,164.51 balance.
 - Jeff Flores from Kingsville attended as a potential new member.
 - Stan Pence announced that a Public Service announcement (PSA) for the Club meetings is being broadcast on six radio stations. these are:
 - KCTA 1060 AM
 - KEYS 1440 AM
 - KRYS 1360 AM
 - K-99 99.1 FM
 - KFTX 97.5 FM
 - KLUX 89.5 FM
- Let the Club know if you hear the PSA.

- Gary Bleasdel announced that the web hosting membership has past. The Club approved a $166.80 fee for continued service.
- Stan Pence volunteered to represent the Club at the SWAT Executive meeting in Temple on 1/28/06.
- The pecan logs harvested last fall were milled and the planks were distributed at Butch's shop. The $280 fee was split among those present. Special thanks to Butch for the hard work involved in overseeing the operation.
